PART VII - Laws of Boat Racing

31. PRINCIPLES

The RACT Laws of Boat Racing are the Rowing Australia (RA) Rules of Racing and Related By-Laws, as current from time to time, except where modified by these By-laws. As the RA Rules change from time-to-time, specific provisions have not been cited. However, the following general principles apply.

- i. Where there is a reference to Rowing Australia or its Board, it is to be interpreted, as a reference to Rowing ACT or its Board.
- ii. The RA rules shall apply as if each RACT event is a RA Event
- iii. Each reference to a Member Association shall be taken to refer to a Member Club of RACT.
- iv. Each reference to the Competition Manager shall be taken to refer to the Chief Boat Race Official
- v. Racing in RACT events shall be over 1800m, 1500m, 1000m, or such other distance as the Board may determine from time to time
- vi. RACT Board and/or its delegate will constitute the Organising Committee
- vii. All RACT events will be organised and conducted by RACT, and any reference to the contrary in the RA rules of racing shall be void for the purposes of the RACT racing rules.
- viii. Those parts of the RA rules of racing intended to relate specifically to National Rowing Championships, Interstate Rowing Championships or Interstate Events shall be void for present purposes.
- ix. Umpires' Committee' is to be interpreted as any sub-committee formed by the Chief Boat Race Official for the purposes of race adjudication.

32. SPECIFIC PROVISIONS

- i. Withdrawal or infraction fines are set by the RACT Board from time to time but must be in place by 1 September for each season. The default fine is $2.
- ii. Rolling Starts.

In difficult wind conditions, the starter may decide to dispense with the normal start and Quick Start procedures and revert to a Rolling Start. If so, crews must be advised at the start of the race.

For the rolling start, the Aligner shall position himself in a power boat to the side and in-line with starting boats up-course of the start line. The Aligner shall direct the boats to proceed slowly down-course. Whilst aligning, the Aligner shall move with the crews down the course, issuing instructions to crews to maintain all boats in line-abreast. At the earliest opportunity after crossing the start line when boats are aligned, the Umpire shall start the race by saying:

“Rolling Start, Attention”

The Umpire shall then raise the red flag. After a clear pause the Umpire shall give the start by dropping the red flag quickly to one side and simultaneously saying:

“Go”

The Umpire may vary the pause between the raising of the flag and the start command (dropping the flag and saying “Go”) vary.

- iii. A protest will attract a fee, set from time to time by the Board, which will be refunded if the protest is successful.
- iv. The Chief Boat Race Official shall appoint the members of the Jury for all regattas and any other races conducted under the auspices of RACT from current Boat Race Officials, as defined in the RACT Rules.
- v. First Aid services are to be available at all regattas.
- vi. Where there is doubt about the application of any part of the RACT racing rules, the issue should be referred to the RACT Board.

PART VIII – Roles and Responsibilities

33. ROWERS AT REGATTAS

Boat Race Officials, in running regattas, play an integral role in managing rower safety. Many regattas will involve the recovery of rowers from the water, particularly novice school rowers.

The Boat Race Officials control both the course and the immediate approach to the course during the conduct of the regattas. They do not control rowers away from the course, on land and while their boats are beached.

All participants of Regattas must obey the instructions of Boat Race Officials.

34. ROWING FLOWS

One of the main risks of rowing is vision – it may be the only sport where the participants have their backs to the direction of movement.

All rowers therefore need to take all reasonable steps to avoid collisions. The Board issues Traffic Flow Guidelines from time to time, which may specify a reverse flow guide for regattas and other events, and all rowers must comply with those traffic flows. The Board will ensure that the guidelines are published and readily available.

35. SAFETY

Clubs should appoint a safety officer.

State Associations all contributed to the development of Rowing Australia's On-water safety guidelines and all parties should familiarise themselves with those guidelines and comply with them. The guidelines are available on Rowing Australia's website and referenced on the Rowing ACT website.

All parties are responsible for submitting incident reports, forms for which will be made available by the Board. The Board will review all incidents to consider whether there are steps that can be taken to further reduce risks.

36. USE OF TINNIES

All tinnie drivers need to be aware of other unpowered craft (e.g. rowers and canoeists) on the Lake and must show them reasonable courtesy. A tinnie driver must never deliberately endanger or interfere with rowers

For the comfort and safety of rowers, tinnie drivers are asked to follow the guidelines below.

- i. Cut wash when passing unpowered craft travelling in the opposite direction. When travelling in the opposite direction this is to be done in advance of passing unpowered craft to ensure wash created does not roll onto the unpowered craft;
- ii. When a moving tinnie is being approached from behind by a faster unpowered craft, cut wash to allow the faster unpowered craft to pass;
- iii. Where possible minimise tinnie wash in East and Central Basin as the hard walls allow wash to impact crews for some time;
- iv. When in East Basin near apartments, try to refrain from the use of loudhailers before 8 am.
- v. Minimise tinnie wash on Yarramundi Reach when travelling South towards the start line;
- vi. While keeping pace with crews being coached/timed travelling North on Yarramundi Reach towards the finish line, drivers are asked to make a reasonable effort to minimise the impact of wash on unpowered craft using the course.
- vii. When safe to do so, it is recommended that tinnie drivers proceeding from finish to start on the rowing course do so close to the centre of the course. This allows drivers to cut power and minimise wash accurately.

- viii. Precautions need to be taken to avoid passing unpowered craft within close proximity.

Member Clubs are also asked to:

- i. ensure their tinnie operators are suitably licensed, trained and skilled to handle and operate tinnies;
- ii. refrain from the use of loudhailers before 8 am in East Basin.

37. CODE OF CONDUCT

All Registered Rowers will abide by the Code of Conduct adopted by Rowing Australia. Rowing ACT will strictly enforce the Code as it relates to Drugs in Sport. These policies are available on the Rowing Australia website.

38. GUEST CLUBS

Interstate Clubs are sometimes invited to row in Canberra. These arrangements can be an important source of funds and promote Canberra as a rowing venue.

However, such Clubs are not familiar with the protocols that exist in Canberra and can pose serious risks by not adhering to traffic flows and through excessive or careless use of tinnies.

Accordingly, all Member Clubs must brief their visiting Clubs including providing those Clubs the NCA Lake Burley Griffin traffic flow Guidelines and Rowing ACT Tinnie Use Protocol along with advice regarding NCA Temporary Permits for Powered Vessels.

Part IX - Privacy

All Member Clubs are to protect the privacy of their Members. Rowing ACT recognises that such policies may vary from Member Club to Member Club according to the nature of the Club or its composition.

Rowing ACT is to ensure that it appropriately manages the information it collects and administers for purposes such as insurance, membership and regatta management and communication and marketing.

It will:

- i. collect only information which it requires for its functions;
- ii. ensure that stakeholders are informed as to why the information is collected and how it is administered;
- iii. use and disclose personal information only:
 - o for Rowing ACT functions or related purposes;

- for another purpose with the person's consent;
 - where disclosure is required or authorised by or under law; or
 - where the use of the information is required in the case of an emergency.
- iv. store personal information securely, or cause it to be stored securely and protected from unauthorised access; and
 - v. provide stakeholders with access to their own information, and the right to seek its correction.

Part X - Other Policies

Rules 2 (Objects) and 17 (Powers of the Board) set out the broad framework and purpose for the setting of the policies by the Board. Where the policies are significant, the expectation is that they will be included or referred to in the By-laws. However, some policies may sit as independent documents or references but the Board is to make the By-laws and such policies available to all rowers.

In some areas, the Board may not set in place its own policies but rely on Rowing Australia policies as updated, repackaged and varied from time to time. This applies, at January 2015, to the following policies:

- i. Member Protection;
- ii. Anti-doping;
- iii. Sports Foods, Medical and Performance Supplement;
- iv. Illicit Drugs in Sport
- v. On-water Safety Code and Guidelines;
- vi. Environmental Sustainability
- vii. No Needles; and
- viii. National Policy on Match fixing.
